

NYS Black, Puerto Rican, Hispanic, & Asian Caucus Minority and Women-Owned Business Enterprise (MWBE) Roundtable

NYS Black, Puerto Rican, Hispanic, & Asian Caucus Minority and Women-Owned Business Enterprise (MWBE) Roundtable presents

"Are MWBEs and Small Businesses Threatened Under the Trump Administration?" at the

46th Annual Legislative Conference
February 17-19, 2017
Albany, NY

The Minority and Women-Owned Business Roundtable will be held on Saturday, February 18, 9:15-10:30,
Legislative Office Building, Hearing Room C

This workshop will discuss the anticipated challenges that MWBEs and small businesses will potentially face under a Trump administration. Panelists will provide a robust discussion about the issues on the city, state, and federal levels. You will get a chance to discuss this issue with experts who have perspectives from multiple angles.

Sponsors:

Assemblymember Rodneyse Bichotte, Chair, Subcommittee on the Oversight of Minority and Women-Owned Business Enterprises

Assemblymember Crystal People-Stokes, Chair, Government Operations Committee

Speakers:

State Senator James Sanders, Jr., 10th Senatorial District, Queens, Chair, Senate MWBE Task Force, Ranking Member, Banks Committee, and the Civil Service and Pensions Committee

Seth Bryant, Managing Partner, Bryant Rabbino, LLC

Moderator:

State Senator Kevin Parker,
21st State Senatorial District, Brooklyn, Ranking Member, Energy and Telecommunications Committee, and the Alcoholism and Drug Abuse Committee

Panelists:

Congresswoman Yvette D. Clarke, 9th Congressional District, Brooklyn, Chair, Small Business Committee

Alphonso David, Esq.,

Counsel to Governor Cuomo, Office of the Governor, New York State

Jonnel Doris,

Senior Advisor and Director, Mayor's Office for Minority and Women-Owned Business Enterprises, New York City

Samuel Pierre, Certified MWBE, SMP Global Consultants

Janique Curry, MWBE Compliance Officer, Erie County Medical Center