

ATTENTION!!!!

The Deadline to Grieve Your Taxes is Thursday, March 1, 2018

ASSEMBLYWOMAN MICHAELLE C. SOLAGES is hosting a FREE taxpayer workshop to educate residents about challenging their property assessments. Learn “step-by-step” process of filing a grievance as well as information about property tax exemption.

Learn How to Grieve Your Property Taxes
TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 2018
7:00 P.M. TO 9:00 P.M.

Gateway Christian Center
502 Central Avenue
Valley Stream, NY 11580

- Any person who pays property taxes can grieve an assessment, including: property owners.
- Only the assessment on the current tentative assessment roll can be grieved - you can't grieve assessments from prior years.
- There is no cost to grieve an assessment and it does not require you to hire a lawyer.

For more information regarding this event or any other community issue, please contact Assemblywoman Solages' district office at 516-599-2972.
