Assemblyman Michael R. Benedetto: Protecting our democracy

To ensure New Yorkers know who's paying for political ads, a new law:

- ✓ Requires that all independent expenditures include a “paid for by” statement with the name of the political entity paying for it
- ✓ Requires the state Board of Elections to keep a public database of all digital ads purchased by independent expenditure committees

The push for election reform isn't over. We need to implement early voting and online voter registration to help make sure every voice is heard.
