- Governor Cuomo held the daily briefing today at Jones Beach on Long Island.

- The governor announced that New York is "decidedly in the reopening phase". Read more here.
  - Professional sports leagues will be able to begin training camps.
    - The teams can return to their facilities after a pause of more than 2 months.
- Daily fatalities in the state are up from 84 on Friday to 109 on Saturday.
- Cuomo said the Metropolitan Transportation Authority (MTA) will be adding more cars to trains so that people can space out and socially distance when Long Island opens.
  - Long Island Railroad will add up to 105 train cars; a 15% increase.
  - The MTA is expected to announce further enhancements in the coming week, including to the Metro-North Railroad.
- New guidelines were added to the New York Forward webpage.
  - The guidelines, on religious and funeral services can be viewed here.

NYC: MAYOR DE BLASIO

- President Trump is banning travel into the United States from Brazil.
  - Coronavirus cases in Brazil are spiking. As of yesterday, the country reported 310,087 cases.
  - The presidential Proclamation can be viewed here.

CENSUS

- Responding to the census is critical, because it helps to determine how federal funds are distributed.
- You can fill out a census form here.
- Brooklynites are returning their census forms in record numbers, but the borough still trails other boroughs in self-response rates.
  - Below is the current self-response rate for households broken down by borough:
    - Kings County (Brooklyn) = 47.3%
    - Queens = 49.7%
    - Bronx = 51.3%
    - New York (Manhattan) = 51.7%
    - Richmond (Staten Island) = 56.2%
  - The self-response rate for the state is currently 54.9%.
- To see current response rates, visit here.

NEW YORK TIMES

- The New York Times published the names of 1,000 of the nearly 100,000 Americans who have died of Coronavirus on its front page today.
  - The names filled the cover of the newspaper, and three inside pages, and included just 1% of those who lost their lives to the virus so far.
  - Each name includes a two-line obituary.
  - A team of staff at the NYT gathered the accounts from obituaries, news articles and paid death notices that have appeared in newspapers and digital media over the past few months.
  - Marc Lacey, the national editor said he wanted people to be able to look back in 100 years and "understand the toll of what we're living through."

MULTISYSTEM INFLAMMATORY SYNDROME IN CHILDREN (MIS-C)

Governor Cuomo announced that a new investigation is underway regarding potential COVID-19 related cases in children. Symptoms can be compared to Kawasaki disease and toxic shock-like syndrome. The Department of Health issued an advisory of what's called the Multisystem Inflammatory Syndrome in Children, or MIS-C, and now requires health care providers to immediately report all related cases. The Department of Health and Mental Hygiene released a health advisory detailing current findings.

- New Yorkers should seek immediate care if a child has:
  - Prolonged fever (more than five days)
  - Difficulty feeding (infants) or is too sick to drink fluids
  - Severe abdominal pain, diarrhea or vomiting
  - Change in skin color - becoming pale, patchy and/or blue

- Trouble breathing or is breathing very quickly
- Racing heart or chest pain
- Decreased amount of frequency in urine
- Lethargy, irritability or confusion

THANK YOU ESSENTIAL WORKERS

They are on the front lines protecting our health.

Thank you
health care workers!

During these unprecedented and difficult times, we thank our essential workers who are serving on the front lines. Today, we thank our healthcare workers for treating us when we are ill.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU ARE SICK WITH COVID-19

What to do if you are sick with coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19)

If you are sick with COVID-19 or suspect you are infected with the virus that causes COVID-19, follow the steps below to help prevent the disease from spreading to people in your home and community.

Stay home except to get medical care

You should restrict activities outside your home, except for getting medical care. Do not go to work, school, or public areas. Do not use public transportation, ride-sharing, or taxis.

Separate yourself from other people in your home

As much as possible, you should stay in a specific room and away from other people in your home. Also, you should use a separate bathroom, if available.

Call ahead before visiting your doctor

If you have a medical appointment, call the healthcare provider and tell them that you have or may have COVID-19. This will help the healthcare provider's office take steps to keep other people from getting infected or exposed.

Wear a facemask

You should wear a facemask when you are around other people (e.g., sharing a room or vehicle) and before you enter a healthcare provider's office. If you are not able to wear a facemask (for example, because it causes trouble breathing), then people who live with you should not stay in the same room with you, or they should wear a facemask if they enter your room.

Cover your coughs and sneezes

Cover your mouth and nose with a tissue when you cough or sneeze. Throw used tissues in a lined trash can and wash your hands with soap and water for at least 20 seconds. If soap and water are not available, immediately clean your hands with an alcohol-based hand sanitizer that contains at least 60% alcohol, covering all surfaces of your hands and rubbing them together until they feel dry. Soap and water should be used preferentially if hands are visibly dirty.

Clean your hands

Wash your hands often with soap and water for at least 20 seconds. If soap and water are not available, clean your hands with an alcohol-based hand sanitizer that contains at least 60% alcohol, covering all surfaces of your hands and rubbing them together until they feel dry. Soap and water should be used preferentially if hands are visibly dirty. Avoid touching your eyes, nose, and mouth with unwashed hands.

Avoid sharing personal household items

You should not share dishes, drinking glasses, cups, eating utensils, towels, or bedding with other people in your home. After using these items, you should wash them thoroughly with soap and water.

Monitor your symptoms

Seek prompt medical attention if your illness is worsening (e.g., shortness of breath or difficulty breathing). Before seeking care, call your healthcare provider and tell them that you have, or are being evaluated for, COVID-19. Put on a facemask before you enter the facility. These steps will help the healthcare provider's office keep other people from getting infected or exposed.

Ask your healthcare provider to call the local or state health department. Persons who are placed under active monitoring or facilitated self-monitoring should follow instructions provided by their local health department or occupational health professionals, as appropriate. <https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/php/risk-assessment.html>.

Discontinuing home isolation

Patients confirmed to have COVID-19 should remain under home isolation precautions until the risk of secondary transmission to others is thought to be low. The decision to discontinue home isolation precautions should be made on a case-by-case basis, in consultation with healthcare providers and state and local health departments. Current information on COVID-19 is limited; home precautions are conservative and based on general recommendations for other diseases, like Middle Eastern Respiratory Syndrome (MERS).
