

Assemblywoman Rebecca Kassay celebrates our hardworking nurses

“Happy National Nurses Week, healthcare hero!

I deeply appreciate the work that you and fellow nurses do to care for our neighbors. Your patience, compassion, and assistance are key to keeping our community healthy and safe. To show my gratitude for the lifesaving work you do every day, I will continue to serve as your advocate in Albany, working to deliver the resources and support you need to establish and grow in your healthcare career here in New York.”
