Assemblyman Phil Ramos: Fighting for Long Island families

“From additional funding for our schools to more opportunities for immigrants, this year brought big wins for Long Island. I’ll continue fighting to support and protect our communities.”

- Philip Ramos

Standing up for immigrants

- Co-sponsored the Jose Peralta New York State DREAM Act to ensure all students, regardless of citizenship status, can pursue a higher education (Ch. 26 of 2019)
- Championed the Driver’s License Access and Privacy Act, known as the Green Light law, which allows undocumented New Yorkers to apply for a driver’s license (Ch. 37 of 2019)

Strengthening our kids’ education

- Secured more than $14 million in additional funding for area schools
- Provided an additional $150,000 for the Brentwood Union Free School District to expand the My Brother’s Keeper initiative to increase opportunities for young men of color
- Fought to give control back to teachers, parents and local school districts by decoupling student test scores and teacher evaluations (Ch. 27 of 2019)

Keeping our communities safe

- Fought to ban firearms that are not detectable by metal detectors or X-rays (A.763-A)
- Passed safe storage legislation requiring gun owners to lock up firearms if there are children or dangerous individuals in the house (A.2686-A)
