

Weekly Report from Assemblyman Charles D. Fall
May 19, 2022

District 61 News

Today my office stood with Staten Island clergy and community leaders to mourn the lives of the ten people killed in Buffalo. My heart broke when I learned ten of our brothers and sisters were gunned down because they were black. The victims were law abiding and innocent citizens carrying out their daily errands.

We have to continue to keep the victims and their families in our thoughts and prayers. As for the coward that gunned down our brothers and sisters he must be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law. These mass shootings are happening way too often.

Until the federal government gets their act together and passes comprehensive gun legislation we as a community need to have the conversation on the best practices of legally protecting ourselves while working with law enforcement.

On the state level, Governor Hochul announced $2.8 million will go towards the victims and their families. We have also passed several measures throughout my tenure in the Legislature to address these senseless acts.

If anyone is interested in helping the victims, please reach out to my office.

Updates from Albany

This week the New York State Assembly passed (A.9121) which establishes an emergency heating energy assistance program benefit.

- While the recently passed 2022-23 state budget included a $250 million fund to help New Yorkers pay their utility bills, there's still more to do to prevent our neighbors from having their power shut off
- Under current law, New Yorkers in need of emergency heating assistance are required to be in a situation where their heat has been shut off or will be shut off in the imminent future before getting the help they need.
- This bill would allow individuals with a significant amount of arrears to qualify for emergency HEAP benefits, ensuring assistance can be provided before the individual has lost their heat

“Unfortunately, the continuing economic fallout of the COVID-19 pandemic has made it difficult for countless working families to make ends meet. As families contend with sky-high inflation and the rising prices of essential goods, many hardworking people have fallen behind on their utility bills. Every New Yorker deserves a safe place to call home”

Assemblyman Charles D. Fall meets with CWA delegation in Albany.

- The delegation wanted to relay a message of thanks to the Assemblyman for co-sponsoring legislation (A.10216) that will prohibit the public service commission from interfering with the provisions of collective bargaining agreements relating to make-ready work entered between certain utility companies and employees.
- Two of the representatives who worked in the Ez-Pass call center on Staten Island also thanked the Assemblyman for standing up for the approximately 300 works impacted by the MTA awarding new contracts to outside entities.

“I remain committed to protecting the Staten Island workers impacted by this new contract. I will continue to work diligently with leaders of CWA to bring about accountability and transparency as future negotiations are set to begin later this year.”

Critical Updates, New Policies, and Testing Locations to Protect You and Your Community

1. Governor Kathy Hochul has announced the Environmental Facilities Corporation Board of Directors approved $41 million in funding that includes low-cost loans and previously awarded grants, enabling the recipients to access these loan and grant funds and move their water and sewer infrastructure projects forward. The Board also approved an $879 million leveraged bond financing to provide capital for various wastewater and drinking water projects for the New York City Municipal Water Finance Authority (NYCMWFA) and to refund certain prior bonds. Refunding bond sales deliver additional savings for EFC's municipal partners by refinancing the original bonds that funded their projects at an even lower interest rate. The transaction is estimated to save $18 million for New York City ratepayers over the next 10 years.
2. Governor Kathy Hochul today announced that $17.3 million in state funding was awarded to six projects in four counties that will provide emergency and permanent supportive housing to New Yorkers experiencing homelessness. Supported through the State's Homeless Housing and Assistance Program, these projects include emergency shelter repairs and developments that will create or preserve an additional 120 units serving veterans, survivors of domestic violence, individuals with a history of substance use disorder, and those suffering from serious mental illness.
3. Governor Hochul announced that the statewide indoor business mask-or-vaccine requirement have been lifted as of Thursday, February, 10, and will remain optional for businesses, local governments and counties to enforce. This protocol, a temporary measure implemented on December 10 as statewide cases spiked, was an effective tool to address the winter surge and the rise of the Omicron variant. With case counts plummeting and hospitalizations sharply declining, this temporary measure is no longer needed statewide. Counties, cities, and businesses will be able to opt into the mask-or-vaccine requirement if they so choose. View Governor Hochul's Presentation Here
4. Governor Kathy Hochul today announced more than $64 million in federal funding to help struggling New Yorkers with children, multi-generational households, and survivors of domestic violence with their expenses amid the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic. Administered through the state Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance and the state Office for the Prevention of Domestic Violence, the Pandemic Emergency Assistance Fund will provide one-time payments to help with the cost of diapers for struggling families, cover food expenses for households with both children and older adults, and provide crucial housing and relocation assistance for survivors of domestic violence. Crucial Resources to Support and Aid Your Everyday Needs

Hello, this is Assemblyman Charles Fall

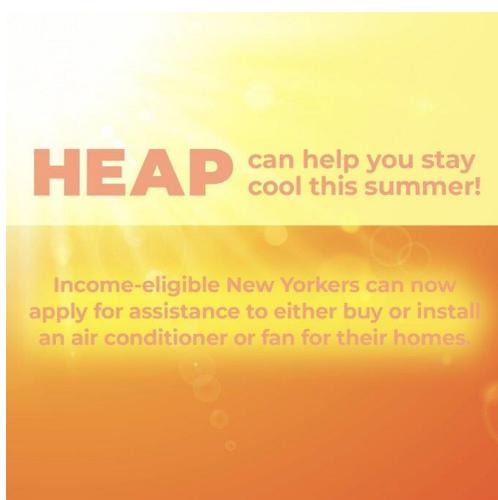

I would like to share an important update on the HEAP cooling assistance program.

It is fair to say that we've had a mild spring so far, but summer is on its way. Extreme high temperatures can put some of our fellow residents, especially seniors, disabled and children, in danger.

The HEAP cooling assistance program provides an up to $800 benefit for eligible households. To learn more and review eligibility requirements, visit:

www.otda.ny.gov/programs/heap/#cooling-assistance-benefit

Additionally, I am providing the HEAP Infoline - 718-557-1399. If you experience any difficulty you can certainly contact my team at 718.442.9932

U.S. households can now order an additional eight free at-home COVID-19 tests, the White House has announced.

That brings the total number of free rapid antigen tests available to each household since the start of the program to 16, according to a White House fact sheet made public on Tuesday.

In two previous rounds, residents were permitted to order only four tests. This round doubles that amount. Rapid antigen tests can be self-administered. Results are available within 15 to 30 minutes.

So far, about 350 million free tests have been delivered in the United States, the fact sheet said, and most tests are delivered by the U.S. Postal Service within 48 hours of shipping.

The tests were purchased by the federal government earlier this year with funding from the American Rescue Plan.

On Monday, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) recommended COVID-19 testing for domestic travelers, not just those who weren't up to date on their vaccinations.

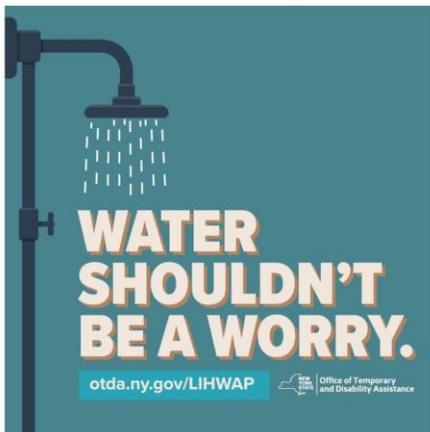

Those interested in signing up to receive the free tests can do so at CovidTests.gov or covid.gov/tests, a website operated by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

People who have difficulty accessing the internet or need additional support placing an order can call 1-800-232-0233 (TTY 1-888-720-7489) to get help in English, Spanish, and more than 150 other languages from 8 a.m. to midnight, 7 days a week. 4. Our children have faced many challenges throughout the pandemic. Now they're back at school and being asked to return to normalcy, but this school year is anything but normal. That's why the UFT's Positive Learning Collaborative (PLC) is offering free, confidential mental health sessions to students and to parents calling on their children's behalf. 5. What is HEAP? The Home Energy Assistance Program (HEAP) helps low-income people pay the cost of heating their homes. How does it work? If you are eligible, you may receive one regular HEAP benefit per season and could also be eligible for an emergency HEAP benefit if you are in impending danger of running out of fuel or having your utility service shut off. Are HEAP benefits available year-round? No, the application period normally begins in early to mid-November and continues into the winter, until funding for the program runs out.

7. It's important to submit an SBA Loan Application - After you apply for disaster assistance from FEMA, you may be referred to the U.S. Small Business Administration. If you are referred to SBA, you should complete and submit the application. If your application is approved, you are not obligated to accept the SBA disaster loan but failure to submit the application may disqualify you from other possible FEMA assistance, such as disaster-related car repairs, essential household items and other expenses. SBA disaster loans are the largest source of federal disaster recovery funds for survivors. In planning your recovery, give yourself the widest possible set of options. Submitting the application makes it possible for homeowners and renters to be considered for additional FEMA grants. Applicants may apply online using SBA's secure website at DisasterLoanAssistance.sba.gov or they may email DisasterCustomerService@SBA.gov for more information on SBA's disaster assistance program. Applicants may also call SBA's Customer Service Center at 800-659-2955 or email disastercustomerservice@sba.gov for more information on SBA disaster assistance.

8. If you're a renter having trouble paying your rent, utilities, or other housing costs – or if you're a landlord trying to stay afloat with tenants in this situation – help may be available. State and local programs are distributing billions of dollars in rental assistance to help renters stay housed during the pandemic. Visit the CFPB's Rental Assistance Finder to find out what this means for you and what you can do. The CFPB's site also includes resources to help renters and landlords understand other resources to help navigate various financial hardships related to the pandemic.

FORECLOSURE PREVENTION NETWORK

Legal Services NYC

Since 2007, Legal Services NYC's Foreclosure Prevention Network has assisted nearly 17,000 New York City homeowners facing foreclosure. With community-based foreclosure prevention projects in our Bronx, Brooklyn, Queens and Staten Island offices, our dedicated team of nearly 40 attorneys and advocates provide critical legal services to homeowners navigating the judicial foreclosure process and fight to help them save their homes. LSNYC Foreclosure Prevention Network partners include non-profit organizations, housing counselors, social service agencies and local government. Our advocates conduct trainings, outreach and education activities in conjunction with community and government partners.

WHAT WE DO

Legal Services NYC's Foreclosure Prevention Network attorneys represent homeowners in foreclosure as well as in state and federal court litigation challenging predatory lending, abusive mortgage servicing, scams targeting vulnerable homeowners, and fair housing and lending violations. We are the largest group of free civil legal services attorneys that help NYC homeowners by:

- Representing homeowners in court-mandated settlement conferences
- Providing legal advice and pro se assistance to homeowners through court-based clinics
- Helping clients negotiate home-saving solutions
- Advocating for fairer lending rules, and for better enforcement of laws protecting consumers from predatory practices

CLIENT SUCCESS STORY

Ms. M, a 68-year-old Black homeowner, fell one month behind on her mortgage when she had to pay for her sister's funeral expenses. For one year, her mortgage company continued to accept her payments, but then her servicing was transferred to a new company. The new mortgage company refused to accept Ms. M's payments unless she could catch up on the one missed payment. For three years, Ms. M tried to negotiate with her lender, but it refused to work with her even though she had sufficient income and was caring for her husband, who suffered from Alzheimer's disease. After being sued in foreclosure, Ms. M was able to connect with Brooklyn Legal Services, who helped her negotiate a modification with a lower interest rate and more affordable monthly payment, saving her $300 per month on her housing expenses and allowing her family to remain in their home.

7. The Forest Ave. Community Fridge is a group from Mariners Harbor looking to help out our community with Food Insecurity.

@FORESTAVECOMEUNITYFRIDGE

WHO ARE WE?

We are a collaborative group, born and raised on the North Shore, who are passionate about addressing the health food disparity in our neighborhood of Mariners Harbor. The foundation of our initiative is "take what you need, leave what you don't" and "we keep us fed and healthy!" – in hopes of creating a culture of unity, interdependence, community restoration and empowerment in Mariners Harbor.

WHAT IS A COMMUNITY FRIDGE?

A Community Fridge is a fridge that provides free and healthy food for community members. The fridges offer access to fresh produce, healthy grains and perishable items to communities that do not have a lot of access to healthy food options.

HOW CAN MY BUSINESS HELP?

Your business can help by donating surplus food to our fridge or allowing us to purchase food at reduced costs.

WHY SHOULD MY BUSINESS/ORGANIZATION CARE ABOUT A COMMUNITY FRIDGE?

In recent political and racial events, many businesses and organizations are looking for ways to fight against racial inequity. Community fridges represent mutual aid – the idea that solidarity not charity is what communities need in order to become fairer and stronger. By donating food to our fridge, your business will be taking part in our ongoing movement for creating justice – first within our communities.

To commemorate that milestone, the 9/11 Memorial will honor the courage and sacrifice of 9/11 rescue, recovery, and relief workers, commemorate those who have died due to 9/11-related illnesses, and recognize the spirit of survivors and members of the downtown community with a special ceremony at 9am. Details on attending the commemoration ceremony and additional offerings throughout May — including free Museum admission for rescue, recovery, and relief workers, survivors, and the downtown community can be found here: <https://www.911memorial.org/connect/commemoration/May-30-2002>”
