This Week in Review

This week Assembly Member Rebecca Seawright toured Roosevelt Island with banking institutions to highlight the island and present possible locations for a bank to open. The tour was organized by Assembly Member Seawright's office in partnership with other elected officials representing the Island, RIOC, and NYS Department of Financial Services. The Assembly Member, pictured above center and to the left on the right, was joined with other elected officials including City Council Member Ben Kallos, pictured above on the right; Manhattan Borough President Gale Brewer, pictured right, on the left; and Congresswoman Carolyn Maloney's Chief of Staff Shelby Garner, pictured above on the left.

Assembly Member Seawright stopped by the Roosevelt Island Sport Park early voting site to thank the poll workers for their services and dropped off snacks.
