

Dear Friends and Neighbors,

I hope you enjoyed a warm and cozy week as the weather gets colder.

Thank you to everyone who attended our final no-cost community shredding event of 2024! Through your efforts, we shredded over XYZ POUNDS/TONS of paper. Stay tuned for information in the coming months about our 2025 shred-a-thons.

We are hosting a holiday toy drive to support the New York Center for Children and asylum seeker families in our neighborhood. From now through Thursday, December 19th, donate new and unwrapped toys at our 1485 York Avenue district office between 78th and 79th St.

The MTA is holding two final public webinars about the Congestion Relief Zone tolling program which will begin on January 5th, 2025. Attend on December 16th or 19th to learn the latest information. Sign up here.

I was honored to deliver remarks at the Carl Schurz Park tree lighting on Sunday. Thank you to CSP Conservancy Director Patrick McCluskey, Cantori New York, NY Brass Quintet, and the community, which turned out in large numbers.

We were pleased to present an Assembly citation to constituent Frank Wilkinson for his years of service to our community.
