ASSEMBLYMEMBER

Dear Friends and Neighbors,

As the holidays of Passover and Easter arrive, I extend my warmest wishes to all who are celebrating.

Passover is a time of reflection, renewal, and the celebration of freedom, reminding us of the enduring importance of justice, resilience, and community. Easter likewise brings a message of hope, renewal, and new beginnings, celebrated with loved ones and cherished traditions. May these holidays bring peace, meaning, and joy to all who observe.

Please also be advised that our office will be closing at 2pm on Wednesday, April 1 and Thursday, April 2 for Passover observance. We will be closed Friday, April 3 in observance of Good Friday, a legal government holiday.

As always, our team remains committed to serving you. Should you need assistance, please do not hesitate to reach out.

Wishing you and your family a meaningful Passover and a joyful Easter.

I invite you to join us at our upcoming events:

Seawright Advocates for Child Care Investment in the State Budget

Assembly Member Seawright joined colleagues and advocates in Albany to call for increased funding for the Child Care Assistance Program (CCAP) and fair wages for child care workers. Highlighting the growing waitlist and urgent need for support, she emphasized that New York's path to universal child care must prioritize low-income families and the workforce that makes care possible.

“Access to affordable, high-quality child care should not be a luxury—it is a necessity for working families and a cornerstone of economic security. As New York moves toward universal child care, we must ensure that low-income families are not left behind. I am proud to support a fully funded Child Care Assistance Program to eliminate the growing waitlist and making meaningful investments in the child care workforce. A truly universal system must be equitable, inclusive, and sustainable for both families and providers alike,” said Seawright.

CEMAPP was developed to combat the growing problem of elder abuse throughout Manhattan. No older New Yorker should feel afraid, embarrassed or helpless.

All New Yorkers should be aware of the signs of elder abuse and be ready to get involved to help keep our neighbors, loved ones, and community safe.
