

Assemblymember Didi Barrett is fighting for child care services

"The COVID-19 pandemic made it even more clear that quality, affordable child care is an economic necessity.

Critical funding for these vital services is on its way to benefit Northeastern Dutchess County families."

Assemblymember Didi Barrett: Funding for the North East Community Center

Assemblymember Barrett secured $40,000 for the North East Community Center (NECC) to assess and better deliver child care programs. NECC is a one stop provider offering a wide variety of social and educational services aimed at building a stronger community. They connect young people with unique opportunities with local businesses, artists, farms, educational institutions, musicians and others, to enrich the lives of local children and families.

NECC assists with food access, transportation services, senior services, parenting resources, community meetings and presentations and other support for individuals and families in Northeastern Dutchess County.
