Assemblymember Didi Barrett

is helping build a brighter future for Hudson Valley families

The enacted 2024-25 state budget supports critical local projects, including:

- ✓ Over $500 million in state aid to schools across the 106th Assembly District, ensuring every student can get the quality education they deserve
- ✓ $2 million to safely close the New Lebanon landfill
- ✓ $400,000 to provide transportation and child care services to clean energy pre-apprenticeship participants, promoting workforce development in our green economy
- ✓ $300,000 for Dutchess Community College to alleviate housing and food insecurity for students
- ✓ $200,000 for a shuttle service between Hudson and Chatham, helping fill a major transit gap that will allow residents to easily travel for work, medical appointments, shopping and recreation

Assemblymember Barrett has delivered on these cost-saving measures:

- ✓ $500 million for clean water infrastructure and more than $800 million for critical road improvements
- ✓ $54 million for Nourish NY to connect struggling farmers with food-insecure households
- ✓ $40 million for the Homeowner Protection Program (HOPP), $50 million for Eviction Prevention Legal Services, and new incentives to create more affordable housing in upstate New York
- ✓ $2 million for the Public Utility Law Project (PULP), a consumer advocacy agency that provides information and legal assistance to low-income residents
