Dear Neighbors,

It's been a long and rewarding week filled with agricultural tours, meetings with constituents, and community events. I will share a longer update with more news and community resources on Monday. Until then, I want to share one of the highlights of my week! My team and I made a visit to Paul Fouts farm in Cortland (more on our visit soon) and had the great pleasure of meeting twin calves. Here is one half of the adorable pair, born on Monday. What a face!

Wishing you all a peaceful weekend!

In good health,

Anna Kelles, Ph.D.
