MEET BRIAN!

In November 2018, Brian Manktelow was elected to represent us in the State Assembly, taking over for former Assemblyman Bob Oaks who retired after 25 years. Brian is a U.S. Army veteran, a father of five, and a proud Wayne County native. He understands the difficulty and hard work it takes to own a successful business in today's economy, having founded his own family farm over 30 years ago. As your full-time Assemblyman, Brian will fight hard to make the voices of the 130th Assembly District heard in Albany. He plans to focus on legislation to:

- Make the property tax cap permanent
- Encourage economic growth and create a friendlier business climate
- Strengthen services for our veterans
- Provide broadband access for all New Yorkers
