It is never too late to reach out for support, from friends, family, or helplines. Breaking free from the cycle of violence is possible, and everyone deserves a life free from fear and control. Here are policies Assemblyman Manktelow is supporting to help victims of abuse:

- ✓ "Gabby's Law," which would establish a coordinated law enforcement adult rescue "teal alert" for missing adults in domestic violence cases (A3230)
- ✓ Establish the crime of assault on a pregnant woman (A3604)
- ✓ "The Domestic Violence Protection Act - Helen's Law" would make it mandatory for violent felons to register. It outlines responsibilities for the Division of Criminal Justice Services, including setting up a special phone line and keeping a list of violent offenders (A3665)

Anyone at Any Age Can Be Victim of Abuse
