IMPROVING PUBLIC SAFETY AND SUPPORTING LOCAL LAW ENFORCEMENT

As your Assemblyman it's important to me to keep my finger on the pulse of our community. When it comes to public safety, that means hearing directly from our Sheriffs and Police Chiefs. There is no doubt that public safety is a major concern today and I know how frustrated upstate New York families are with crime. Our men and women in uniform are heroes walking among us and their courage, commitment, and sacrifice is truly commendable. I'm committed to making New York safer, because I know what a great place it can be to live, work and raise a family. That's why I've worked on numerous bills to protect the public and law enforcement.

JEFF'S LEGISLATIVE WORK

Protecting families and victims of domestic violence by supporting policies that force any individuals arrested for domestic violence to forfeit bail when violating an order of protection (A.3369). He also supports increasing the punishment for crimes involving domestic violence (A.3385).

Honoring fallen officers by supporting the Division of Criminal Justice Services in adding the names of New York State peace officers slain in the line of duty to the Police Officers Memorial (A.2992).

Keeping local law enforcement safe by supporting policies that expedite the application process for police officers applying for a firearms license throughout New York State (A.4859).
