Honorable Charles Lavine
Chair
Assembly Judiciary Committee
Room 831
Legislative Office Building
Albany, New York 12248

Dear Chuck:

Article III, §7 of the New York State Constitution provides that, following a legislative redistricting, to serve in the Assembly a person must have resided in the county in which the person's district is located for a period of one year prior to the person's election and service. Credible and serious questions have been raised regarding whether Lester Chang meets this constitutionally-established requirement for serving as a Member of the Assembly.

Pursuant to my powers under Assembly Rule I, §1(c)(11), I am directing the Assembly Judiciary Committee to look into the question of whether Lester Chang meets the constitutionally-established qualifications to serve as a Member of the Assembly, including the authority to issue any subpoena necessary to assist the Committee in its work. I expect the Committee's report by the end of the month and will refer the report to the new Assembly convening in January to assist it with its deliberations under Article III, §9 of the State Constitution.

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Carl E. Heastie".

Mr. Lester Chang
1015 East 29th Street
Brooklyn, New York 11210

Dear Mr. Chang:

On December 2, 2022, the New York City Board of Elections certified the results of the November 8, 2022 General Election and declared you to be the candidate who received the most votes for the Public Office of Member of Assembly from the 49th Assembly District, Brooklyn, New York.

As it has been reported in the media and through other sources received by this Committee, you have not been a resident of Kings County "... for the twelve months immediately preceding [his or her] election." See New York State Constitution Article 3 Section 7.

In accordance with Article 3, Section 9 of the New York State Constitution, "each house shall...be the judge of the elections, returns and qualifications of its own members." (emphasis added) The Speaker of the Assembly has directed this Judiciary Committee to begin a review of your qualifications to constitutionally serve in office pursuant to the aforesaid mandate and to complete its work by the end of the month. The completed review will be forwarded to the new Assembly for consideration when it convenes in January.

Consistent with this mandate, I have scheduled a public hearing of the Judiciary Committee for Monday, December 19, 2022 at 9:30 a.m. in the Assembly Hearing Room, Hearing Room C, Legislative Office Building, Albany, New York 12248. You are requested to attend such hearing and provide the Committee with any such documentation you may possess to establish the validity of your Kings County residence in the applicable time frame established by the New York State Constitution. You may also be represented by counsel at such hearing and should be prepared to answer questions under oath put forward to you by members of the Committee and/or committee staff. Furthermore, you may have witnesses attend the hearing and present relevant testimony on this subject.

To advance the Committee's review of the relevant information you are specifically requested to provide the undersigned with copies of any and all of the following documents setting forth your residential address and bearing a date of November 7, 2021 and earlier: utility invoice, cellphone, medical or any other insurance invoices, employment records referencing your residential address, drivers license and/or motor vehicle

NOTICE TO EMPLOYEE:

Do you have to file? Refer to the instructions for Form 1040 and 1040-SS to determine if you are required to file a tax return. If you are required to file a tax return, you may be eligible for a refund. Box 2 shows an amount if you are eligible for any credit.

Earned income credit (EIC). If you have a child or qualifying child, you may be able to claim the credit for the excess you paid in federal income tax. See Form 1040 and 1040-SS for more information. The amount of the credit is based on income and family size. Workers with children could qualify for a smaller credit. You and any qualifying children must have valid social security numbers (SSNs). You can't take the EIC if your investment income is more than the specified amount for 2021 or if income is earned for services performed in the United States and you are a nonresident alien for part of the year. See Form 1040-SS for more information. Also see Pub. 508, Earned Income Credit. Any EIC that is more than your tax liability is refunded to you, but only if you file a tax return.

Corrections. If your name, SSN, or address is incorrect, correct Copies B, C, and 2 and ask your employer to correct your employment record. Be sure to ask the employer to file Form W-2c, Corrected Wage and Tax Statement, with the Social Security Administration (SSA) to correct any name, SSN, or money amount error reported to the SSA on Form W-2. Be sure to get two copies of Form W-2 from your employer for all corrections made so you may file them but that the extra copy is on your social security card. You should ask for a new card that displays your correct name at any SSA office or by calling 1-800-772-1213. You also may visit the SSA at www.SSA.gov.

Cost of employer-sponsored health coverage. If such cost is provided by the employer, the amount reported in box 12, using code DD, is the cost of employer-sponsored health coverage. It is for information only. The amount reported with code DD is not taxable.

Credit for excess taxes. If you had more than one
