Message from the Caucus Chair
Assemblymember Michaele C. Solages, 22nd Assembly District

With over seventy-five lawmakers, the New York State Black, Puerto Rican, Hispanic, and Asian Legislative Caucus remains committed to advocating for policies that advance the well-being of our communities. Our legislative policy agenda reflects our commitment to creating a more opportunities for economic empowerment, stability, and advancement for all New Yorkers.

Moreover, the Caucus will continue its efforts to address the systemic inequalities and injustices that continue to negatively impact Black, Latino, AAPI communities in New York State.

Some of the key areas of focus for the Caucus include promoting economic development and job creation, addressing racial disparities in healthcare access and outcomes, providing for a clean slate for individuals with a criminal record, protecting and expanding voting rights, and advancing educational equity and access.

Through legislative advocacy and community engagement, the Caucus strives to promote policies that builds more resilient communities. The Caucus also works to raise awareness about issues affecting communities of color and to promote greater understanding and collaboration among New Yorkers of all backgrounds.

Overall, the Caucus is a vital voice for communities of color in the state and an important advocate for policies that promote equity, justice, and opportunity for all New Yorkers. However, the participation of everyday New Yorkers is crucial for shaping the agenda of the Caucus and making sure that the voices of all communities are heard. It is their advocacy and engagement that keeps our democracy vibrant and responsive to the needs of the people.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Thank you to all the Caucus members, legislative staff, advocates, and everyday New Yorkers who have contributed to this publication. It is critical to recognize and appreciate the efforts of those who work towards creating positive change in our communities. The Caucus remains deeply committed to advancing policies that support the well-being of all New Yorkers, particularly those from historically marginalized communities. That is why it is crucial to have a public input process to ensure these legislative priorities are for the people, by the people.
